

The Strategic Plan Tracker: An Open Source Application Designed to Keep You and Your Strategic Plan on Track

Anne Pemberton (pembertona@uncw.edu) and Laura Wiegand McBrayer (mcbrayerl@uncw.edu)

1 CHALLENGE

Keep track of a collaborative, 5-year plan with 100+ objectives, that calls for input from a large faculty/staff (50+) when there's no free tool available

3 WHAT DOES IT TRACK?

- Person(s) responsible
- Target academic year
- Status of objective (e.g. "in progress," "not started," etc.)
- Assessment measures
- Assessment findings
- Links to documentation (e.g. committee reports, links to websites, etc.)
- Progress notes

5 OUTCOMES

- Easy to use
- Fun (progress as bar chart)
- Flexible (easily adjust status, target date, people involved, etc.)
- Other libraries can create one (reach out to us and we'll help!)

SOLUTION

- "Strategic Plan Tracker" built with React (JavaScript library) and PostgreSQL database in 2017
 - Created by library ITS and Assessment Librarian
- Accessible through login by library faculty and staff

HOW'S IT ORGANIZED?

- 7 "Key Action Areas"
- Multiple objectives for each area
- Each objective has editable fields (listed above)

- ### UNCW FAST FACTS
- Part of UNC System
 - Wilmington, NC
 - 17,000+ students
 - 1 Library
 - 56 majors, 36 master's degrees, 4 doctoral degrees
