To address grand challenges in higher education assessment practices through national collaborations, systematic inquiries, and dissemination of evidence-informed practical solutions.

To empower higher education professionals to develop and use assessment practices that support innovation, learning improvements, and equity.

Participating in subgroups.
Contributing librarian skill sets.
Disseminating information and resources to the library profession.

Joining a goal area subcommittee.
Tuning in to dissemination and professional development opportunities.
Implementing recommendations in libraries.

Assessment Experts
Professional Development
Best Practices
Tools
Resources

GRAND CHALLENGES IN ASSESSMENT WEBSITE